DISCLOSURE OF IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT

SCHEDULE*

Premium attributable to risk of loss from certified acts of terrorism for lines of insurance subject to TRIA:

N/A

*Any information required to complete this Schedule, if not shown above, will be shown in the Declarations.

A. Disclosure of Premium

In accordance with the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act ("TRIA"), as amended, we are required to provide you with a notice disclosing the portion of your premium, if any, attributable to the risk of loss from terrorist acts certified under that Act for lines subject to TRIA. That portion of premium attributable is shown in the Schedule above. The premium shown in the Schedule above is subject to adjustment upon premium audit, if applicable.

B. Disclosure of Federal Participation in Payment of Terrorism Losses

You should know that where coverage is provided by this policy for losses resulting from certified acts of terrorism, the United States Government may pay up to 80% of insured losses exceeding the statutorily established deductible paid by the insurance company providing the coverage.

C. Disclosure of $100 Billion Cap on All Insurer and Federal Obligations

If aggregate insured losses attributable to terrorist acts certified under TRIA exceed $100 billion in a calendar year (January 1 through December 31) and an insurer has met its deductible under the program, that insurer shall not be liable for the payment of any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion, and in such case insured losses up to that amount are subject to pro rata allocation in accordance with procedures established by the Secretary of Treasury.

D. Availability

As required by TRIA, we have made available to you for lines subject to TRIA coverage for losses resulting from acts of terrorism certified under TRIA with terms, amounts and limitations that do not differ materially from those for losses arising from events other than acts of terrorism.

E. Definition of Act of Terrorism under TRIA

TRIA defines "act of terrorism" as any act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in accordance with the provisions of the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act ("TRIA"), to be an act of terrorism. The Terrorism Risk Insurance Act provides that the Secretary of Treasury shall certify an act of terrorism:

1. To be an act of terrorism;
2. To be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property or infrastructure;
3. To have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside of the United States in the case of an air carrier (as defined in section 40102 of Title 49, United States Code) or a United States flag vessel (or a vessel based principally in the United States, on which United States income tax is paid and whose insurance coverage is subject to regulation in the United States), or the premises of a United States mission; and
4. To have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.

No act may be certified as an act of terrorism if the act is committed as part of the course of a war declared by Congress (except for workers' compensation) or if losses resulting from the act, in the aggregate for insurance subject to TRIA, do not exceed $5,000,000.

SCHEDULE*

The exception relating to certain fire losses applies to property located in the following state(s), if covered by this insurance:

State(s)
California, Maine, Mississippi, Oregon, Rhode Island and Wisconsin

*Information required to complete the Schedule, if not shown above, will be shown in the Declarations.

A. Exclusion of Certified Acts of Terrorism

We will not pay for loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by a “certified act of terrorism”, including action in hindering or defending against an actual or expected “certified act of terrorism”. Such loss or damage is excluded regardless of any other cause or event that contributes concurrently or in any sequence to the loss.

B. Exception Relating to Fire Losses Applicable to Property Located in Certain States

If the “certified act of terrorism” results in fire, we will pay for the direct physical loss or damage to Covered Property caused by that fire. This exception does not apply to any other loss or damage including but not limited to business income, extra expense, any additional coverage and any coverage extension.

C. Definition

“Certified act of terrorism” means an act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in accordance with the provisions of the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act (“TRIA”), to be an act of terrorism. The Terrorism Risk Insurance Act provides that the Secretary of Treasury shall certify an act of terrorism:

1. To be an act of terrorism;
2. To be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property or infrastructure;
3. To have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside of the United States in the case of an air carrier (as defined in section 40102 of Title 49, United States Code) or a United States flag vessel (or a vessel based principally in the United States, on which United States income tax is paid and whose insurance coverage is subject to regulation in the United States), or the premises of a United States mission; and
4. To have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.

No act may be certified as an act of terrorism if the act is committed as part of the course of a war declared by Congress (except for workers' compensation) or if losses resulting from the act, in the aggregate for insurance subject to TRIA, do not exceed $5,000,000.

D. Application of Other Exclusions

The terms and limitations of a terrorism exclusion or any other exclusion, or the inapplicability or omission of a terrorism exclusion or any other exclusion, do not serve to create coverage which would otherwise be excluded, limited or restricted under this policy.

E. Cap on Losses From Certified Acts of Terrorism

If aggregate insured losses attributable to one or more "certified acts of terrorism" exceed $100 billion in a calendar year (January 1 through December 31) and we have met our insurer deductible under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, we shall not be liable for the payment of any portion of the amount of such losses that exceeds $100 billion, and in such case insured losses up to that amount are subject to pro rata allocation in accordance with procedures established by the Secretary of Treasury.

All other terms and conditions of this policy remain unchanged.

This policy contains all the agreements between the Named Insured and us concerning the insurance afforded. The Named Insured is authorized to request changes to the terms of this policy on behalf of all "enrolled customers", but such changes shall be effected only with our consent as expressed by an endorsement written by us and attached to this policy. It is the responsibility of the Named Insured to notify all other "enrolled customers" of such change; however, the failure of the Named Insured to do so will not invalidate the change. Notice of such change to the Named Insured shall be considered notice to all "enrolled customers".

3. EXAMINATION OF NAMED INSURED'S BOOKS AND RECORDS

We may examine and audit the Named Insured's books and records as they relate to this policy at any time during the policy period and up to 3 years afterward.

4. PREMIUMS

- b. Will be the payee for any return premiums we pay;
- c. Is responsible for returning any return premium to each "enrolled customer"; and
- d. May contract to have a program administrator acceptable to us perform notification, premium collection and return premium duties.

5. TRANSFER OF NAMED INSURED'S RIGHTS AND DUTIES UNDER THIS POLICY

The Named Insured's rights and duties under this policy may not be transferred without our written consent.

6. CONCEALMENT, MISREPRESENTATION OR FRAUD

The coverage provided by this policy is void with respect to any "enrolled customer" who commits fraud or intentionally conceals or misrepresents a material fact concerning:

- a. This policy;
- b. The "covered equipment";

H. DEDUCTIBLE

The Deductible amount shown on the Declarations or Certificate is payable by the “enrolled customer” for each claim for “loss” to “covered equipment”. The Deductible is nonrefundable if we replace equipment; however, if we repair the equipment and our cost to repair is less than the Deductible that has been paid, then the excess amount will be refunded. The Deductible does not reduce the amount we will pay for repair or replacement of equipment.

I. OUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. In the event of a covered “loss”, we will arrange for the repair or replacement of the lost, stolen or damaged “covered equipment”. We have no obligation to repair, replace or restore electronic data, programming or applications on the “covered equipment” nor are we responsible for any consequential damages arising from the loss of use of the “covered equipment”. Our repair of “covered equipment” or delivery of replacement equipment fulfills our obligation.
2. Replacement equipment may be refurbished equipment and/or equipment of like kind and quality. Such equipment may be a different brand, model, and/or color and contain non-original manufacturer parts and accessories.
3. Equipment failure evaluations performed by our Authorized Service Representative, “authorized service facility”, and/or the manufacturer may be required prior to approval of your request for replacement of the “covered equipment”.
4. Unless requested otherwise by “enrolled customer” via the website or mailing to the Authorized Service Representative, the “enrolled customer” agrees and consents to permit us to make disclosures and provide notices to the “enrolled customer” in electronic form, instead of providing such notices and disclosures in written and mailed form. The “enrolled customer’s” consent and agreement shall relate to all forms of disclosures and notices required under applicable law and shall remain valid until such time as the “enrolled customer” may exercise his or her right to revoke this consent.
5. We are not responsible for any fees or charges to the “enrolled customer” for receiving electronic messages sent by us to provide notices as per paragraph 4. above.
6. Any rights the “enrolled customer” has against anyone causing “loss” to “covered equipment” are transferred to us upon our fulfillment of our duties. The “enrolled customer” shall do nothing following such “loss” to impair such rights.

J. CLAIM REPORTING PROCEDURES, DUTIES, AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. In the event that “covered equipment” is lost or stolen, the “enrolled customer” must first notify the Wireless Service Provider to suspend service before submitting the claim. Proof may be required.
2. For any “loss” involving a violation or alleged violation of law or any loss of possession, the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction must be notified and we must be provided confirmation of such notification.
3. Any “loss” should be reported to us promptly. We have no obligation to respond to “loss” not reported within 60 days if such delay prejudices our ability to handle the claim.

All claims must be submitted through our Authorized Service Representative for our approval prior to any action on that claim. Any claims that are not submitted through our Authorized Service Representative for our approval will not be fulfilled.

4. All equipment for which we issue replacement equipment becomes our property. If “covered equipment” is damaged or malfunctioning, the “enrolled customer” is required to return such equipment at our expense. Should the “enrolled customer” be unable or unwilling to return the damaged, malfunctioning, or recovered equipment for which a replacement was issued, a non–return fee equal to the amount shown in the Premium, Deductible and Non-Return Fee Schedule will be charged in addition to the Deductible.
5. If we request, you or your “enrolled customer” must provide us:
 - a. A detailed proof of loss statement;
 - b. Proof of ownership;
 - c. Proof of identity;
 - d. Proof of equipment usage;

- e. Affidavit of "loss";
- f. Any other reasonably requested records and documents.

Any documentation we request must be provided within sixty (60) days of such request.

- 6. We have the right to inspect and examine equipment and records proving the "loss".
- 7. Any person submitting a claim must allow us to question them under oath, at such times as may be reasonably required, about any matter relating to this insurance or that claim.

8. COOPERATION

All other terms, conditions, provisions and exclusions of this policy remain the same.

A. Paragraph 1. of Section G. Policy Conditions is replaced by the following:

1. POLICY CANCELLATION

The following cancellation provision applies to the policy unless a special state cancellation endorsement applies.

- a. You may end your authority to enroll customers by mailing or delivering to us advance written notice of such intent. You shall also mail or deliver written notice to each “enrolled customer” advising the “enrolled customer” of the termination of your authority to enroll customers and the effective date at least 30 days before the termination.

Such action will not affect any protection for customers already enrolled.

- b. “Enrolled customers” may cancel their protection at any time.
- c. We may terminate your authority to enroll new customers by mailing or delivering to you written notice at least:

- (1) 10 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for nonpayment of premium;
- (2) 30 days before the effective date of cancellation if we cancel for any other reason.

Such action will not affect any protection for customers already enrolled.

- d. We or you may cancel the protection for a specific “enrolled customer” by mailing or delivering written notice to such customer at least:

However, if we do not send notice within the 30 day time frame, the “enrolled customer’s” coverage shall continue notwithstanding the number of times we will repair or replace as specified in the Declarations or Certificate until notice of termination is sent to the “enrolled customer”.

- (2) 30 days before the effective date of cancellation for:

- (a) Discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation in obtaining coverage;

The cancellation will be effective even if we have not made or offered a refund. It is the responsibility of the Named Insured to remit the proper proportion of any returned premium or premium received from "enrolled customers" but not sent to us to each "enrolled customer".

- g. Notice required pursuant to this cancellation condition shall be provided in writing, either via mail or by electronic means.
 - (1) If notice is provided via mail, it shall be mailed or delivered to the Named Insured at the Named Insured's mailing address and to all affected "enrolled customers" at the last known mailing addresses of those customers on file with us. The provision of an electronic mail address to us or the Named Insured by an "enrolled customer" is considered consent to receive notice and correspondence by electronic means as long as a disclosure to the effect is provided to the "enrolled customer".

Notice or correspondence may be sent on behalf of us or the Named Insured by the supervising entity appointed by the insurer.

B. Paragraph 2. of Section G. Policy Conditions is replaced by the following:

2. CHANGES

This policy contains all the agreements between the Named Insured and us concerning the insurance afforded. The Named Insured is authorized to request changes to the terms of this policy on behalf of all "enrolled customers", but such changes shall be effected only with our consent as expressed by an endorsement written by us and attached to this policy. If we change the terms and conditions, we shall promptly provide the Named Insured with a revised policy or endorsement. We will provide all "enrolled customers" with a revised certificate, endorsement, brochure, or other evidence indicating that a change in the terms and conditions has occurred and a summary of material changes.

Any change in the terms and conditions shall be provided in writing, either via mail or by electronic means.

- (1) If notice is provided via mail, it shall be mailed or delivered to the Named Insured at the Named Insured's mailing address and to all affected "enrolled customers" at the last known mailing addresses of those customers on file with us. The provision of an electronic mail address to us or the Named Insured by an "enrolled customer" is considered consent to receive notice and correspondence by electronic means as long as a disclosure to the effect is provided to the "enrolled customer".

Notice or correspondence may be sent on behalf of us or the Named Insured by the supervising entity appointed by the insurer.

C. Paragraph 6. of Section G. Policy Conditions is replaced by the following:

6. CONCEALMENT, MISREPRESENTATION OR FRAUD

The coverage provided by this policy may be voided in the event of fraud or misrepresentation by the “enrolled customer” relating to:

1. This policy;
2. The “covered equipment”; or
3. The “enrolled customer’s” interest in the “covered equipment”.

Subject to the following provisions of Utah Code Section 31A-21-105:

- a. No statement, representation, or warranty made by any person representing us in the negotiation for an individual insurance policy affects our obligations under this policy unless the statement, representation, or warranty is stated:

- (1) In this policy; or
- (2) In a written application signed by the “enrolled customer”.

No person, except the “enrolled customer” or another person by the “enrolled customer’s” written consent may alter the application, other than for administrative purposes in a way which is clearly not ascribable to the “enrolled customer”.

- b. The “enrolled customer” may request, in writing, from us a copy of the application, if:

- (1) This policy or a copy of the application has not been received; or
- (2) This policy has been reinstated or renewed without the attachment of a copy of the original application.

If we do not deliver or mail a copy of the application, within 30 days after receipt of the request by us or our agent, nothing in the application affects our obligations under this policy to the person making the request.

- c. Except as provided in f., no misrepresentation or breach of an affirmative warranty affects our obligations under this policy unless:

- (1) We rely on it and it is either material or is made with intent to deceive; or
- (2) The fact misrepresented or falsely warranted contributes to the loss.

- d. No failure of a condition prior to the loss, and no breach of a promissory warranty, affects our obligations under this policy unless it:

- (1) Exists at the time of the loss; and
- (2) Either:
 - (a) Increases the risk at the time of the loss; or
 - (b) Contributes to the loss.

However, Paragraph d. does not apply to nonpayment of premium.

- e. Nondisclosure of information not requested by us is not a defense to an action against us. Failure to correct within a reasonable period of time any representation that becomes incorrect because of changes in circumstances is misrepresentation, not nondisclosure.
- f. If, after we issue this policy, we acquire knowledge of sufficient facts to constitute a general defense to all claims under this policy, the defense is only available if, within 60 days after acquiring such knowledge we notify the “enrolled customer” of our intention to defend against a claim if one should arise. However, in order to continue this policy, we and the “enrolled customer” may both agree to endorse it to include specific exceptions or modifications.

For purposes of this Paragraph f., we are to be considered as having acquired knowledge only if the information alleged to give rise to such knowledge was disclosed to us or to our agent in connection with communications or investigations associated with the policy under which the subject claim arises.

g. No trivial or transitory:

(1) Breach of; or

(2) Noncompliance with;

Any of the above provisions is a basis for avoiding this policy.

D. Paragraph 7. of Section G. Policy Conditions is replaced by the following:

7. LEGAL ACTION AGAINST US

No one may bring a legal action against us under this policy unless the action is brought within 3 years after the “enrolled customer” first had knowledge of the direct loss or damage.

All other terms, conditions, provisions and exclusions of this policy remain the same.
